

Congratulations IMPACT Awardees!

The Downtown Denver Partnership is proud to recognize the following individuals and organizations for their visionary contributions in executing the 2007 Downtown Area Plan:

DaVita

For selecting Downtown Denver for its Fortune 500 corporate headquarters, bringing 1,600 teammates and a stunning new building to the center city.

Denver Startup Week Organizing Committee

For tremendous leadership and vision to create the largest free entrepreneurial event in North America that serves as a platform to grow Downtown's culture of innovation and entrepreneurship.

Denver Union Station Project Authority

For leadership in overseeing the development and construction of the Denver Union Station Transit District.

Andre Durand

For establishing Denver as one of the best places in the country to launch and grow a technology company, setting the pace for economic growth and a thriving entrepreneurial ecosystem.

Piep van Heuven

For a longtime commitment to improving bicycle infrastructure and creating a multi-modal Downtown.

Lindy Eichenbaum Lent

For championing Civic Center Park through the growth and impact of the Civic Center Conservancy, and advocacy for capital funding to support the long-term sustainability of the park.

Roland Lyon

For leadership in bringing the Downtown Denver Expeditionary School - the first new school in Downtown in more than 100 years - to meet the needs of Downtown residents and employees.

Nichols Partnership

For visionary support of 14th Street, unwavering support of the startup industry, and commitment to bringing new housing units to Downtown.

Dennis Rubba

For an abiding passion to make streets more walkable and grow the urban forest.

Mark Sidell

For the vision and oversight to transform retail at Denver Pavilions, bringing first-to-market and high-impact retail to the center city including H&M, Uniqlo and Target.

Union Station Alliance

For an ongoing commitment to transformation of the historic Denver Union Station ensuring a vibrant mix of retail, restaurants, hotel and public space.

Union Station Neighborhood Company

For visionary private sector leadership in the redevelopment of Denver Union Station and surrounding areas, adding 19.5 acres of new office, retail and residential development.

Wendy Williams

For leading the creation of The Outdoor Downtown Plan and longstanding commitment to the successful future of Skyline Park.

Barb Weiske

For commitment to connect Auraria through the development of several master plans and construction of new buildings and streetscape projects.

Zocalo Community Development and Mile High United Way

For catalyzing signature residential and office development in Arapahoe Square.